

MOLECULAR*DIAGNOSTICS AND THERAPY

...where technology meets patient care

Mr. Shubham Jain

Vice President, Projects

B.Tech in Civil Engineering - Meerut Institute of Engineering and Technology (MIET)

About

Mr. Shubham Jain is the Vice President of Projects for Molecular Diagnostics and Therapy, where he oversees the strategic planning for projects and their execution, such as government empanelment. Mr. Jain has significant experience in project management and sees to it that all projects are executed effectively and efficiently.

Prior roles for Mr. Jain included key operations and project management positions, such as Operations Consultant for Liv space and Project Executive. He possesses skills for the role as a result of his involvement with projects requiring the management of stakeholders, resources, and budgets. The application of his knowledge of civil engineering will enable him to handle projects of a complex nature.

Known for his astute organizational skills and drive to ensure that only the best is delivered, Mr. Jain is a vital element in ensuring the growth and development of Molecular Diagnostics and Therapy. Known for his entrepreneurial spirit in project development and his drive to ensure that only the best is delivered, Mr. Jain is a vital part of this company as it continues to expand its role within the healthcare industry.